AeroCamp Code Of Conduct

Camps are designed for the enjoyment and benefit for all campers involved. With this as the objective, we anticipate that no camper is here who does not want to be here.

Should any disciplinary problems occur, we will contact the parent/guardian to come pick up the camper. Please read and sign the AeroCamp code of conduct.

Guiding Principles

- To ensure that the rights of all individuals are protected while attending the camp
- To establish the safest and best possible learning environment for all camp participants
- To ensure that breaches of the rules and code of conduct are treated in a fair and consistent manner

Expectations

- All parents and campers have the responsibility to treat one another, staff and property with respect
- All parents and campers have the responsibility to act and behave in a way which does not endanger, intimidate or interfere with the participation of others
- Campers have the responsibility to follow the instructions given by camp staff
- All parents and campers have the responsibility to behave according to this code of conduct

Rules – the following forms of behavior are considered a violation of this document and are unacceptable and could result in the immediate dismissal of camper(s):

- Cigarettes or any tobacco products, oral nicotine products (Zins), alcohol, non-prescribed drugs, weapons and pornographic material MUST NOT be brought to camp
- Using language which is offensive, sexist or racist
- Fighting, bullying or any other forms of aggressive behavior
- Leaving camp boundaries without permission
- Behaving in a manner which is potentially dangerous to self and others
- Behaving in a manner which damages or vandalizes the property of others.

Any breach of the Rules or the Code of Conduct will initiate a disciplinary action. The Flying School reserves the right to suspend or dismiss a camper's participation in camp activities, without refund of camp tuition, if such disciplinary action is required. Before such a decision is fully made, the camper and parent/guardian will meet with camp staff to determine the best course of action.

Agreement:

I have read and agree to adhere to the above Rules and Camper Code of Conduct of the The Flying School AeroCamp. My youth and I fully understand the Rules and Code of Conduct as detailed above and I agree to him/her receiving appropriate disciplinary action should he/she breach them:
